

Fourth International Festival of Falconry (Al Ain/Abu Dhabi)

Lecture Program: ten speakers on birds of prey and history of falconry
December 5th, 2017, 10–13 hs.

Moderation/Framing: Dr. Oliver Grimm (Centre for Baltic and Scandinavian Archaeology/Germany - New York University Abu Dhabi/UAE)

Layout by Lars Foged Thomsen (Denmark)

Fourth International Festival of Falconry – Lecture Program: 05.12.2017, 10–13 hs.

10.00–10.15 Official Opening

10.15–13.00 Lecture Program – moderation and framing: Dr. Oliver Grimm

10.15–10.30 Dr. Oliver Grimm, Introduction to the Lecture Program

10.30–10.45 (Biology) Prof. Anita Gamauf (Austria), Biology of Birds of Prey
(Museum of Natural History, Vienna)

10.45–11.00 (Museum Educator, falconer) Ellen Hagen (Norway), Viking Age Falconry
in Museum Education (Archaeological Museum/University, Stavanger)

11.00–11.15 (Art History) Prof. Leslie Wallace (USA), Early Falconry in China
(Coastal Carolina University, South Carolina)

11.15–11.45 Break

11.45–12.00 (Archaeology) Prof. Erdenebat Ulambayaar (Mongolia), Early Falconry of the Eurasian Steppe: Rock Art and other Finds (Department of Anthropology & Archaeology, School of Arts & Sciences, National University of Mongolia, Ulaanbaatar)

12.00–12.15 (Art History) Dr. Yannis Hadjinicolaou (United Arab Emirates), Falconry
Images: A View from Art History (Research Fellowship in the Humanities, NYU Abu Dhabi)

12.15–12.30 (Falconry officials) Karl-Heinz Gersmann (Germany) & Dr. Keiya Nakajima
(Japan), ‘Ehon taka kagami’: An Illustrated Picture Book of Hawking (Late 19th Century, Japan)

12.30–12.45 (Historical Studies) Prof. Baudouin Van den Abeele (Belgium), Emperor
Frederic II of Hohenstaufen (1194–1259) and the Introduction of Arabic Treatises on Falconry into Europe (Centre d’études sur le Moyen Age et la Renaissance, Catholique University of Louvain)

12.45–13.00 Dr. Oliver Grimm & Dr. Anne-Lise Tropato, Summary and Outlook
(A.-L. Tropato; art history, research coordinator NYU Abu Dhabi, UAE)

